

2023 PLACE LEADERS AWARDS

The 2023 Place Leaders Asia-Pacific Awards is calling for nominations for each of these awards and will award them if appropriate nominees are received. There are six Place Leaders Award categories open:

Place Leadership - Recognises significant leadership by an individual or a group who has made a contribution to the advancement of placemaking through raising the national and/ or international profile of placemaking

Small Scale Place Project - Recognises a specific project or scheme that has demonstrated best practice placemaking under AUD $200k

Large Scale Place Project - Recognises a specific project or scheme that has demonstrated best practice placemaking over AUD $200k

Place Governance - Recognises a specific model that has advanced excellence in the delivery and/ or management of holistic place outcomes

Place Process - Recognises a specific approach, strategy or program that has contributed to best practice placemaking

Digital Placemaking - Recognises a specific project that has demonstrated best practice in digital placemaking.

AWARDS STRUCTURE

Place Leaders awards are based on a two-tier system.

Centrepiece - this award is allocated as a Jury's choice award and is given to the individual or organisation that has displayed overall excellence in placemaking from all categories in Australasia and the Asia Pacific in any given year. There is only one winner in any given year. An award may be given regardless of the number of eligible entries. If the jury so determines, no Centrepiece award will be given.

Category Award - this award is given to the individual, organisation, project or initiative that has made the most significant advancement in a particular award category in any given year. There is only one winner per category award in any given year. An award may be given regardless of the number of eligible entries. If there are no suitable nominees no Category Award will be given.

For the Category Awards, commendations may be made. More than one commendation may be given. Commendations may be given regardless of the number of eligible entries.
